	Content, Activities, and Media to Use	Time
Warm-Up Review classes current level of knowledge and create an environment for learning.
Introduction Create motivation for the new topic. What is in it for the learner? Do not start the lesson yet, just create interest in it.
Presentation Teach the new knowledge and skills using a variety of strategies.
Practice Let the student practice the new knowledge or skills. Make it safe for them to make mistakes. The best lessons have more practice than presentation.

Evaluation Evaluate the students to see if they can perform the skills just practiced. Use a checklist, quiz, report-back session, or other means of assessment.
Application Create an activity in the classroom where students apply the new knowledge or skill to their own lives. Simulate real world application of the skill as much as possible.
Reflection Create an activity that asks students to reflect on what they have learned and how and when they will use it.
