or military activities. It is highly unlikely, but you could encounter such activity at or near a polling place, despite laws prohibiting interference. Know the legal limits of responding. You can generally observe and express your opinion, but not interfere.

Your rights

- Check the rules for recording. Some incidents might motivate you to collect evidence to share with law enforcement, election officials or the media. Most polling places prohibit cell phones or recording inside to protect voters' privacy.
- Avoid escalating confrontations. Lower the temperature if possible by listening to those you disagree with and, if needed, turn the dispute over to election officials or other trusted authorities.
- Whatever you do, do not interfere with someone's ability to vote. That is illegal.

De-escalation

RESOURCES YOU NEED TO PROTECT YOUR VOTE

- 1 Select a white or light version of your logo with a transparent background, if applicable. To help with sizing, the logo placeholder box is 2.35 inches wide and 1.35 inches tall.
- 2 Go to the slide with the cover and delete the placeholder box on the cover of the pocket guide.
- 3 In PowerPoint, click Insert > Pictures, and then select the location of your logo. In Google Slides, click Insert > Image, and then select the location of your logo.
- 4 Copy that logo, paste it and replace the placeholder box on the second pocket guide cover (below the first one).
- 5 Check logo alignment and go!

PRINTING INSTRUCTIONS

IMPORTANT: If you're adding your logo to the 8.5x11-inch version, please follow those printing and folding instructions instead.

DIY PRINTING

- 1 Load 11x17-inch paper.
- 2 Select these printing options:
 - Landscape
 - Color
 - Double-sided
 - Flip on short side
- 3 If there is an option to minimize borders or to print to the edge, select that option.
- 4 Do a test print. Make any needed adjustments. Start printing your pocket guides!

PRINTSHOP

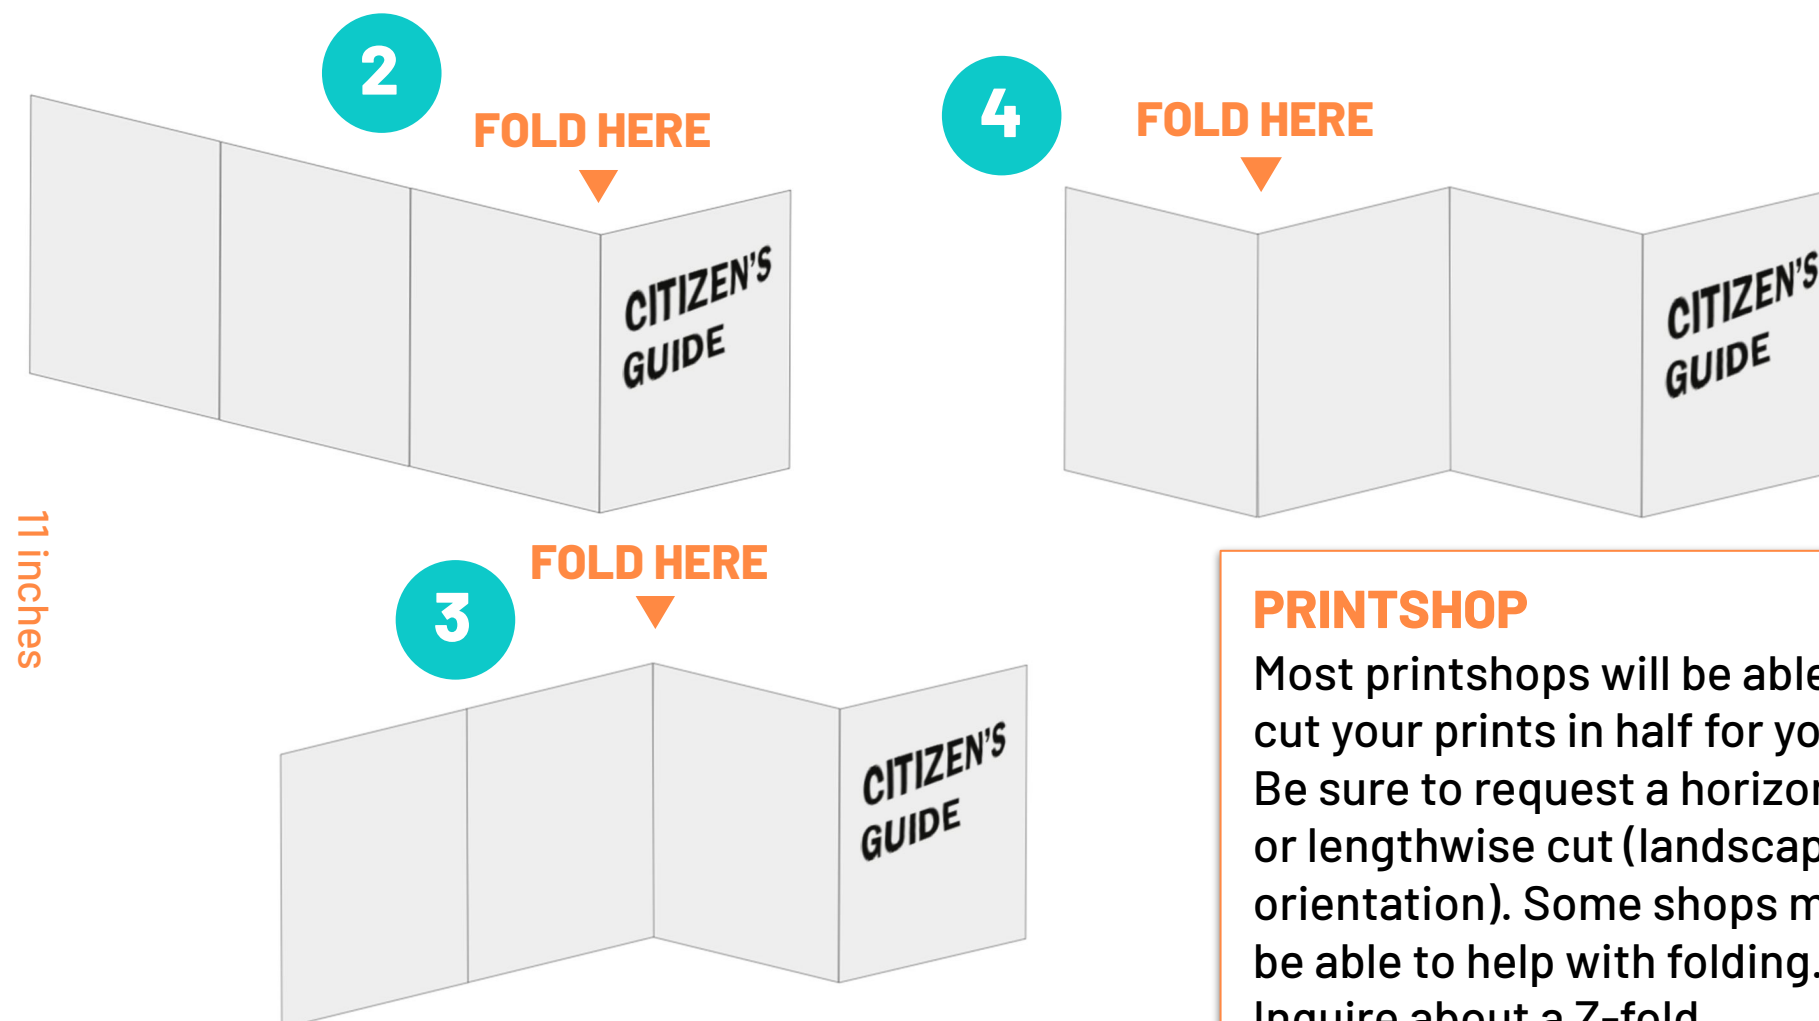

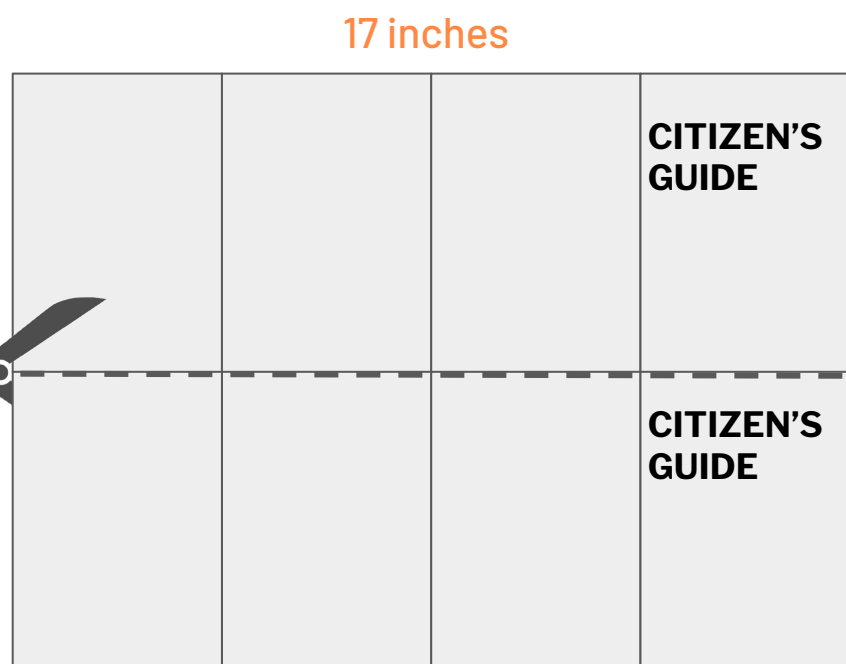

Request double-sided color prints on 11x17-inch paper with a landscape orientation and flipped on the short side.

Note: When printed landscape, some shops call this "ledger" paper.

CUTTING AND FOLDING INSTRUCTIONS

DIY CUTTING AND FOLDING

- 1 CUT HERE  Use a paper cutter for a smoother edge.

PRINTSHOP

Most printshops will be able to cut your prints in half for you. Be sure to request a horizontal or lengthwise cut (landscape orientation). Some shops may be able to help with folding. Inquire about a Z-fold.
