Ep. 7: Challenges facing the 2024 elections, a conversation with experts

“Joining us for an important discussion on our vibrant democracy are:

U.S. Air Force veteran and CEO of The Elections Group: Jennifer Morrell. Jennifer is a nationally recognized expert on election audits and subject matter expert for the U.S. Department of Homeland Security’s Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency and a member of the National Task Force on election Crises. Tina Barton, also of The Elections Group. Tina spent 32 years as a civil servant from the local to federal levels and has spent the last 16 years dedicated to election administration and safety. She has been the city clerk of Rochester Hills, Michigan and the Senior Advisor at the U.S. Election Assistance Commission. And finally, Justin Smith. Justin is a retired sheriff of Larimer County, Colorado. He has 35 years of law enforcement experience and advises The Elections Group on law enforcement concerns.”
