

January 7, 2025

Auditing the 2024 General Election: Observations and Innovations

In the days and weeks after the 2024 general election, the work did not stop for election officials across the country. Many of them were required to do some form of post-election audit. Audits come in many shapes and sizes, but all exist for the purpose of making sure that the results from the tabulation machines were correct.

Original link: <https://electionsgroup.com/auditing-the-2024-general-election-observations-and-innovations/>