Strength in numbers: Coalition of Bay Area Election Officials in California combines resources

“Every challenge facing election officials is being answered somewhere through innovative practices. We launched our Accelerating Excellence series to elevate those practices and make copying them easier through case studies and implementation workbooks,’ said Danny Davenport, election expert with The Elections Group. ‘We knew early on that we wanted to include the Coalition in that series, because it is an amazing example of local election officials working together to educate and inform voters.’”
