Elections Stayed Secure in 2022, but Trouble Could Return in 2024

“Voters may have rejected candidates who ran on election denial, but that doesn’t mean resentment about 2020 doesn’t still run deep. Whatever fraud theory election deniers have embraced, their direct connection to the process is their local election official, says CSSE member Tina Barton, who received death threats while serving as the city clerk of Rochester, Mich.”
